SHELTERPOINT LIFE'S POLICIES AND PRACTICES PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

In general, ShelterPoint Life does not release any protected health information or other confidential information unless you provide a signed release authorization valid for two years. Protected health information (PHI) is individually identifiable health information related to your physical or mental health or condition, health care services provided to you or payments made for your care. PHI may be released to a plan sponsor or policyholder for policy administration purposes without a signed authorization. PHI may be released to a treating physician or to permit ShelterPoint Life to process a claim. PHI may be exchanged with third parties responsible for payment of related charges.

PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION : ShelterPoint Life collects and uses personal information in connection with underwriting functions, policy application review, policy administration and claims processing. Where permitted by law, ShelterPoint Life collects information from licensed insurance brokers and agents in connection with the sale of its products. Information may be exchanged with your medical provider to permit ShelterPoint Life to process your claim. Information may be provided to your plan administrator to assist it in seeking policy amendments, modifications or improvements or to permit it to process claim requests.

INFORMATION SECURITY : ShelterPoint Life does not release any information about any insured or claimant without a current authorization signed by the insured, except as permitted by law. ShelterPoint Life maintains all policyholder and insured records in confidential, secure locations.
